PALAHI ROAD, PHAGWARA (Pb.)

EDUCATIONAL FIELD TRIP

The famous Henry Ford was of the opinion that, "It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking and monetary system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning."

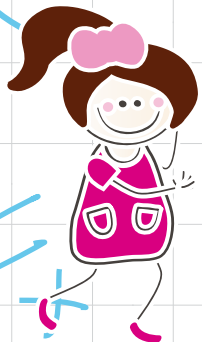

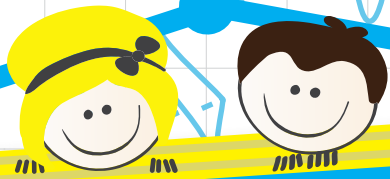

Taking that as a suggestion worth accepting, the students of Grade XI Commerce stream were taken to an educational field trip to Axis Bank, Phagwara Branch. Many students opt for Commerce stream as a means to fulfill their dreams. Keeping in mind the requirements of Commerce stream, Cambridge International School, Phagwara arranged this visit to enhance their knowledge of their field.

On August 4, 2016, Cambridge International School, Phagwara organized an educational field trip to Axis Bank, G.T.Road, Phagwara. 59 students of Grade 11 Commerce went to the Bank along with two teachers of commerce - Mrs. Rupinder Kaur and Mrs. Suruchi Gupta. Students practically saw the working of the banks and got to know about Cheques - Deposit and Issue, Bouncing, Crossing of Cheques, Bank Statement, Pass Book, ATM, Lockers etc.

It was organized as a part of Syllabus of Accountancy and Business Studies. Such experiences become a part of a student's life and what once seen can never be forgotten. We can assert that "Nothing beats an exciting hands-on experience to deepen learning.

The Magic of a field trip isn't just the subject. It's the break in routine and adventure that opens up children's minds to new things." - Anonymous

CLAY MODELLING COMPETITION

Someone rightly said,
"I love to create, and to me, the ultimate freedom of expression is a blank canvas or a block of clay to capture whatever emotions your imagination gives it" - Daniel Boulud

Creativity is nothing but inventing, experimenting, growing, taking risks, making mistakes and having fun. The kindergarteners also underwent the same exercise when Clay was given as a medium wherein they could create their imagination's concrete form.

Thus, a Clay Modeling Competition was organized on August 3, 2016 for Kindergarteners of Cambridge International School, Phagwara. The competition not just enhanced creativity and gave vent to emotions and imagination but also resulted in developing longer attention spans for its promising artists.

They molded different colored clay in the form of Nature, Animals, Fruit Baskets and much more. The dexterity, creativity and imagination of the students were laudable.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION AMONG KINDERGARTENERS

Let your heart bask in free spirit...
Let your soul soar high...
With the essence of freedom.

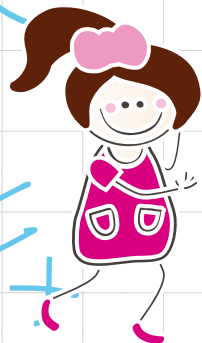

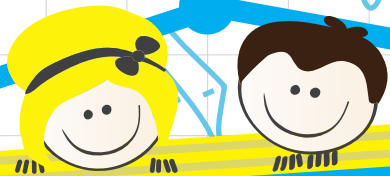

It must be known to each child born in free and independent India, what it means to be independent. The spirited little hearts of Cambridge International School, Phagwara were to be taught the same. Hence, the school's kindergarten wing celebrated Independence Day on August 11, 2016 in the school auditorium with great joy and enthusiasm. All the students came dressed up in tricolors. The celebration started with comparing which was done by the little students of Grade KG 2.

To instill the patriotic value and love for the nation, the kindergarteners presented a group song, presented few slogans, recited rhymes and also staged a role play on the theme, "INDIA, THE BEST PLACE TO LIVE IN". They put up a dance performance showcasing the love for the motherland. All the kindergarteners were so excited and confident while performing on the stage. They learned every aspect of Independence Day through the symbols depicting the same. In the end, Principal Jorawar Singh praised for all for their brilliant performances. They were a delight to watch.

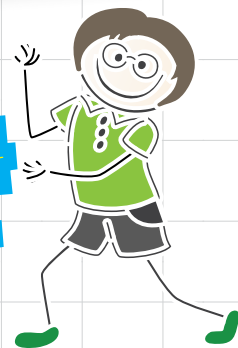

Adding to this, on August 12, 2016, these little students of Cambridge were engaged in different indoor activities. They made wrist bands, caps and collage of freedom fighters to symbolize soaring spirit on the patriotic occasion of Independence Day. Teachers worked hard to make the little hands work to perfection.

RAKHI-MAKING COMPETITION

The responsibility of this month's activities lay on the shoulders of Cedar House and it organized activities for the school. Keeping in mind the month and the festivals related to it, Rakhi Making competition was organized in the school auditorium on August 9, 2016. Students made beautiful rakhis with amazing designs. This competition was for Grades IV to VIII. It was for a noble cause as the rakhis were sent to the army jawans of our country.

It was a school's was to be thankful to them. they have been brothers and kin who have always strived to protect the people. Our sincere gratitude was extended to them. The students also celebrated the 70th Independence Day on August 11, 2016 in school auditorium. Students showed their talent by taking part in songs, skit, dance, etc. Yoga was also performed on National Anthem.

It was celebrated with full enthusiasm to commemorate the contribution of our great freedom fighters. Respected Principal Jorawar Singh addressed the students and gave the message to live together and peacefully.

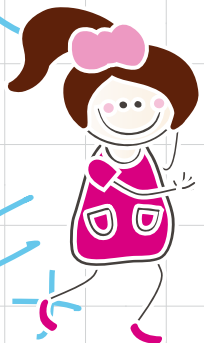

In order to instill in the minds of the little children all the necessary values and feelings, Cambridge International School, Phagwara made effective use of the occasion of Raksha Bandhan.

"Raksha Bandhan" is an auspicious occasion to celebrate the bond of love, respect and responsibility between a brother and sister. Little Kindergarteners performed a small Enactment to describe the importance of this festival.

Handmade innovative and designer Rakhis, bracelets and necklaces were the representation of the personal feelings of the siblings which strongly bind brothers and sisters in the circumference of mutual love and trust.

It is always fun in learning while doing certain activity. Hence, this competition created a platform for the children to play, create and grow.

JANAMASHITMI CELEBRATION

Religious Oneness and Cross Cultural Respect marked by Janamashtmi Celebration

Each culture has its uniqueness and we are proud to be living in a nation which has a vast diversity of people, religions and cultures. Janamashtmi is an auspicious event to mark the birthday of Lord Krishna- a Hindu deity. Thus, a celebration was organized at Cambridge International School, Phagwara among the kindergarteners.

It was celebrated with enormous zeal and aplomb. Little children came dressed as symbols of this festival. The celebrations included dance items and bhajans by little hearts of Kindergarten. A perfect cross cultural union was seen where children of all religions came forward to celebrate this festival. The little one's of Cambridge Kindergarten looked adorable in the traditional costumes of Krishna and Radha.

The cradle of Lord Krishna was put up with lavish decorations and the most pleasing moment was when the little kiddos were giving swing to Lord Krishna. They felt so happy while doing it. The entire atmosphere had the fragrance and purity of this pious festival.

The school auditorium was transformed into a land of joy, celebrations and happiness. In the end, Principal Sir asked few qualities of Lord Krishna from little ones and they answered very well. The entire event was enjoyed by all the little hearts of Kindergarten.
