STORY TELLING COMPETITION

Stories break silence and nourish those who work, feel and dream"

The telling and hearing of stories is a bonding ritual that breaks through illusions of separateness and activates a deep sense of our collective interdependence.

To develop the moral and social values among our children, Story telling competition was organized in Cambridge Kindergarten.

The purpose of the competition was to enhance their speaking and listening skills and also to teach them significant lessons of life through different Morales from different stories.

All the divergent stories narrated by kindergarteners were well founded and applaudable.
